CASTLETONIAN

Pam,

It has really been nice going to school with you and having one class with you. Have fun this summer, which I know you will. Good Luck in the future.

Your friend.

MEMORIES

Memories pressed between the pages of my mind

Memories sweeten through the ages just like wine

Quiet thoughts come floating down and settled softly

To the ground — I pull the bottom leaves around my feet

I touch them and they burst apart with sweet memories.

Faded Photographs covered now with lines and creases

Tickets torn in half—Memories in bits and pieces

Traces of love long ago that didn't work out right

Traces of Love

Of holding hands and red bouquets and twilights trimed

In purple haze and laughing eyes and simple ways and

Quiet nights and gentle days are Memories within my heart.

Mr. J. M. Tarwater
Principal

One of the greatest needs of our day is a better understanding of the duties and responsibilities which help us maintain our freedom and our liberty. It is the purpose of your school to offer academic training which will prepare you for your future life, but we believe it is also one of the functions of a good school to develop an understanding of duties and responsibilities — and this we try to do.

Another great need of our day is a better understanding of other people and the ability to get along with them. We hope that the knowledge which you have acquired in our school will help you to successfully handle the problems which you meet in your daily lives.

Castlewood High School has attempted through its curricular and extracurricular activities to prepare each of you for the task which confronts you. If we have done this for you then we can and will take great satisfaction in a job well done. We will follow you into your future years with great interest and concern.

In the years to come, when you turn through the pages of your 1977 Castletonian, may it remind you of many happy days spent here, the friends you made, and the fellowship which you enjoyed with them. My best wishes will always be with each of you wherever you go and whatever you do.

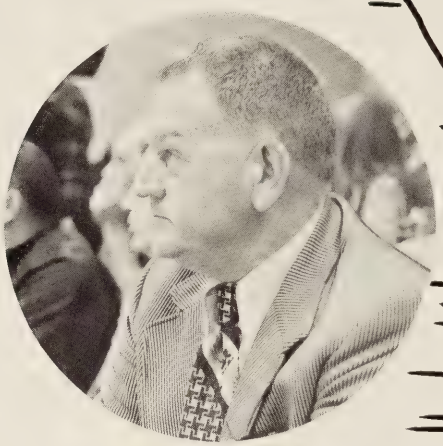
The Rifle Corps add final touches to our military type band.



We the Castletonian staff, dedicate this book and all the efforts and aspirations it contains, to a man admired and respected by every student at Castlewood. For it is through this book that we have tried to present to you a clear picture of Castlewood High School and what it means to its student body. What better way could we achieve this purpose than to dedicate our book to one who inspires leadership, strong character and responsive citizenry. So in recognition we dedicate our year to . . .

MEMORIES NEVER FADE

Dear Friend, as birds, however far they fly,

Recall their blossom-bowers, will you not think
Sometimes of us and let our friendship link

Nearness and distance with a lasting tie,

A perfumed ribbon of a memory,

As sweet as are these petalled symbols strewn

About this mourning, beggared afternoon,

These blooms with which we say to you goodbye?

from A Farewell
